

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING MARCH 4

A RELIC.—The sacred volume on which George Washington took the oath of office in 1789 is still in existence. The history of the Washington Bible is one of the incidents connected with the early days of the Masonic fraternity in this city. According to the records of St. John's Lodge No. 1 the authenticity of the old Bible is assured. When Washington was about to be inaugurated the committee of arrangements found that in the excitement about Federal Hall the necessity of a Bible had been overlooked, and the hour for the inauguration was rapidly approaching. The City Hotel stood where now the Federal building is, and consequently it was only a short distance from Federal Hall in Wall street. Both Washington and Chancellor Livingston were Freemasons, and knew that on the Masonic altar is always to be found an open Bible while the lodge is in session. St. John's Lodge, then the only lodge in the city, held its meetings in the City Hotel, and if the Tyler was to be found there would be no difficulty in obtaining the Bible for so important an occasion. This officer was found, as he was an attaché of the hotel; the Bible secured and used, after which it was returned to the lodge-keeper. An entry of the fact was made in the minutes of the next meeting of the lodge, and the Bible resumed its place on the Masonic altar. When it became necessary in after years to replace the old book by one of more modern style, the ancient volume was deposited in a place of security as a relic of the lodge.—N. Y. Mail and Express.
